

MAIL cross country league

A wet and windy day at Enslow, Bletchington on 1.3.92 saw the end of the 1991/1992 season. The meeting hosted by Kidlington Running Club brought a fitting climax to the series, which has been the most successful season so far.

The new categories for veteran ladies (O/45) and veteran men (O/50) proved very popular.

We are grateful to following clubs who hosted the five rounds in the series -

Yarnton Running Club
Witney Road Runners
Abingdon Amblers
White Horse Harriers
Kidlington Running Club

and hope that they and other clubs will feel able to offer to host a meeting in 1992/1993.

The support of the Oxford Mail has once again proved invaluable and thanks are also due to Neville Smith, Athletics Editor, for kindly agreeing to present the awards at the end of the season.

Special mention is due to Pete Wilson of White Horse Harriers for winning his fifth consecutive individual title, a model of consistency and a great supporter of the Oxford Mail League.

Found at Ardington 2.3.92 - Pair Hi-Tech Silver Shadow running shoes. To claim please telephone Jan Johanson 0993 703038
