cross country league

The setting for the climax of the season was the familiar Drayton School course with hosts, Banbury AC, once again putting on an excellent event, for which many thanks. Spots of light drizzle and dark clouds gave a wintry aspect, and everywhere was muddy. The long courses were changed from last year with more undulations.

The school canteen provided a good venue for the prize giving. Andy Reading conducted proceedings, and thanks go to Michael Knox of the Oxford Mail for handing out the glittering array of trophies.

The results speak for the health of the League, which, as you will see from the statistical tables on page 6, continues each year to set records for attendance and participants. However hard we try the results seem never to be free of mistakes. Apologies from the results service go to the Oxford City under 13 boys, as the league officials tried to present the shield to a rightly unwilling Banbury. The Oxford team had dominated the race throughout the season. This error had its origins in a mistake made in the round 4 overall results which went unreported. Apologies also to Helen Avil of Oxford City who nearly did not get her medal for completing 4 mini-minor races. That mistake goes back to the computer crash in round two, again unnoticed. Finally Matthew Ashton, was wrongly called Mark on the front page of last month's results. Matthew deserves special mention as the only runner this year to achieve 5 victories.

The difficulty over names, dates of birth, etc. could be reduced if all clubs were offered the option to pre-register their runners with the league. This could, for example, be done by sending in before the season a list, preferably computer readable, of surnames, first names and dates of birth of all the members of the club. New members would of course still be catered for by declaration on the race envelopes as at present. This change could help both the club's envelope person and the results service. Perhaps clubs could bring views to the AGM to be held next Autumn.

Pat Read, Headington, is looking for results sheets from the 92/3 season and earlier. If you have copies please let Pat know, direct or via the Results Service.
